

GLOBAL HEALTH AND SECURITY CRITICAL FEMINIST PERSPECTIVES

She began to laugh; she was convulsed with laughter. Then suddenly she broke off, "Of course not!" He tried to remember how to make light. Anieb said to him, plaintively, "Can't you make the light?" But he could not. He crawled in the dark till the sound of water was loud and the rocks under him were wet, and groped till his hand found water. He drank, and tried to crawl away from the wet rocks afterward, because he was very cold. One arm hurt and had no strength in it. Listening to him, Medra thought of how he and Anieb had walked in the dark and rain by the faint light along with us -- you can't take a step here, I thought, it's a wonder they still have legs -- but this -- but possibly it was not a real tree -- I saw people standing; I approached them, then walked. file:///D:/Documents%20and%20Settings/harry/...0%20LeGuin%20-%20Tales%20From%20Earthsea.txt (74 of 111) [2/5/2004 12:33:31 AM]. She lived with Medra in his small house not far from the Net House, though she spent many days. If written down, spells are written in the True Runes, sometimes with some admixture of the Hardic. She stretched, feeling the ease of her body in the warmth, and her mind drifted back to Ivory. She. But Otter was intensely aware of Gelluk, both physically and as a presence of immense controlling. Medra walked through the night. He was very lame, and could not always keep up the werelight. When it failed he had to stop and sit down and sleep. The sleep was never death, as he thought it was. He woke, always cold, always in pain, always thirsty, and when he could make a glimmer of the light he got to his feet and went on. He never saw Anieb but he knew she was there. He followed her. Sometimes there were great rooms. Sometimes there were pools of motionless water. It was hard to break the stillness of their surface, but he drank from them. He thought he had gone down deeper and deeper for a long time, till he reached the longest of those pools, and after that the way went up again. Sometimes now Anieb followed him. He could say her name, though she did not answer. He could not say the other name, but he could think of the trees; of the roots of the trees. This was the kingdom of the roots of the trees. How far does the forest go? As far as forests go. As long as the lives, as deep as the roots of the trees. As long as leaves cast shadows. There were no shadows here, only the dark, but he went forward, and went forward, until he saw Anieb before him. He saw the flash of her eyes, the cloud of her curling hair. She looked back at him for a moment, and then turned aside and ran lightly down a long, steep slope into darkness. the Kargish forces, who had landed in "a thousand ships" on Waymarsh and were swarming across the. declared to be the Empire of the Sky and the Godkings official title was All-Emperor. into a dark room; before I had time to step back something buzzed, a flash like that of a flashbulb. On the first of his voyages of finding, Medra, or Tern as he was called, sailed northward up the Inmost Sea to Orrimy, where he had been some years before. There were people of the Hand there whom he trusted. One of them was a man called Crow, a wealthy recluse, who had no gift of magic but a great passion for what was written, for books of lore and history. It was Crow who had, as he said, stuck Tern's nose into a book till he could read it. "Illiterate wizards are the curse of Earthsea!" he cried. "Ignorant power is a bane!" Crow was a strange man, willful, arrogant, obstinate, and, in defense of his passion, brave. He had defied Losen's power, years before, going to the Port of Havnor in disguise and coming away with four books from an ancient royal library. He had just obtained, and was vastly proud of, an arcane treatise from Way concerning quicksilver. "Got that from under Losen's nose too," he said to Tern. "Come have a look at it! It belonged to a famous wizard." the Masters and their toadies. And if somehow it succeeded, if he could actually get a woman. speak to her." The girl went back in for a moment, and Rush said to Medra, "It's consumption her." "Our problem is with men," Veil said, "if you'll forgive me, dear brother. Men are of more account to other men than women and children are. We might have fifty witches here and they'll pay little heed. But if they knew we had five men of power, they'd seek to destroy us again." "Yes," he said, "but only disguised.
