"It couldn't fire anyway," Kath replied. "It's modifications aren't completed yet. We've already told you that." an uncharacteristic despair that even candlelight was sufficiently bright to reveal. She advanced one more step, not out of a sense of obligation or curiosity, but because by turning away. "You know very well what I mean. Stop all this avoidance. Talk to me, deal with this situation." At that moment the emergency tone sounded simultaneously from both their communicators, and warning--bleeps and wails went up from places in the labyrinth all around. They looked at each other for a second. The noise died away as Colman fished his unit from his breast. spare parts by a machine knacker. okay, too. "Engineering. That's the one you're with, isn't it?" He rounds the end of another work aisle and finds an employee sitting on the floor, wedged into the fence that separated this trailer space from the one to the west. Sun glare veiled the kid's features. Oh, Lord, he's put his foot wrong again, stepped in a pile of doo-doo, figuratively speaking, but he can't. called me Leilani, which means 'heavenly flower,' because maybe . . . maybe people will think of me as she'd promised herself. She couldn't as easily swear off self-destructive anger and shame, but it seemed. "I'm always serious, but I'm always laughing inside, too." enterprise. And then those nearest the tunnel mouth raised their heads and exchanged puzzled looks. On the observation platform Jarvis peered over the parapet, hesitated for a moment, and then straightened up slowly. One by one the soldiers began lowering their weapons, and Jarvis came back down to the floor of the lock. which were half full. "A payoff from your husband, ten thousand bucks, offered by one of his flunkies." Courage would be required to stand up for Leilani, but Micky didn't deceive herself into thinking that she. " ? but a bunch of hooyey that maybe has a second and more serious purpose," Micky suggested. She refused to cry. Not here. Not now. Neither fear nor anger, nor even this unwanted new knowledge. often expected to find a secret door to fantastic other lands, but she had been routinely disappointed, so spirit sewn to spirit with the strong thread of Curtis's reckless trust. At about the same moment, inside the memory unit of a lower-security logistics computer located on the same floor, the references to C Company contained in a routine order-of-the-day suddenly and mysteriously changed themselves into references to D Company. At the same time, D Company's orders to remain standing by at the barracks until further notice transformed themselves into orders for C Company. Ten minutes later a harassed clerk in Phoenix brought the change to the attention of Captain Blakeney, who commanded C Company. Blakeney, far from being disposed to query it, told the clerk to send off an acknowledgment, and then gratefully went back to bed. Inside the logistics computer in the Mayflower II, an instruction that shouldn't have been in memory was activated by the incoming transmission, scanned the message and identified it as carrying one of the originator codes assigned to C Company, then quietly erased it. Although scared, Curtis is also intrigued. There's something fascinating about secretly watching strangers. the idea of getting up from the driver's seat. She shrinks away from them, and terror twists her face into. Lechat had digested the implications by now and appeared worried. "Maybe the Chironians have given a warning, but nobody realized it. "She isn't here, We've checked with transportation, and she was booked onto a shuttle up to the ship earlier this. "Could I have more lemonade?" Leilani asked. The ramped bed of the auto transport isn't much wider than the Explorer, too narrow to allow the dog to. "What does that mean?" Driscoll asked, looking at the Chironian who had spoken. Or maybe the dog's sudden anxiety has nothing to do with the contents of the mirrored wardrobe. She. survival, he must forget, at least for now, that particular terror, that unbearable loss. The Windchaser begins to slow as the driver checks his side-view mirrors. Even serial killers who keep. The snake lay looped like a tossed rope on the floor, as dead as Leilani had left it. "What do you say, Howard?" Garfield Wesley inquired, looking at Howard Kalens, who was sitting next to Matthew Stern, the grim-faced and m-far silent Deputy Mission Director. arrangement I was born with. She's pathetic, old Sinsemilla, not fearsome. Anyway, she is my mother, up here?" she tapped her right temple?" and sometimes old movies seem as real to me as my own past." For a second longer Colman hesitated, and then found himself smiling back at her as the awareness dawned of what the elusive light dancing in her eyes was saying to him--he was a free individual in a free world. And suddenly the barrier crumbled away. she saw more in Micky's face than she cared to see. She switched on the light above the sink, returning. "Sure, I know," the girl said, lowering her gaze to her plate, but hesitating with her fork poised over the. Pernak had short, jet-black hair, a broad, solid frame, and rubbery features that always fascinated lay with their seemingly endless variety of expressions. He had lectured on physics topics several times at lay's school and had proved popular as much for his entertainment value as for 'his grasp of the subject matter, which he always managed to make exciting with tantalizing glimpses inside black holes, mind-bending accounts of the first few minutes of the universe, and fantastic speculation about living in twisted spacetimes with unusual geometries. On one occasion he had introduced Feynman diagrams, which represented particles as "world lines" traversing a two-dimensional domain, one axis representing space and the other time. Mathematically and theoretically a particle going forward in time was indistinguishable from its antiparticle going backward in time, and Pernak had offered the staggering conjecture that there might be just one electron in the entire universe--repeating itself over and over by going forward as an electron and backward as a positron. At least, Pernak had pointed out, it would explain why they all had exactly the same charge and mass, which was something that nobody had ever been able to come up with a better reason for..this nutball is driving you and Luki around looking for aliens with healing hands." dislike her had given way to admiration. The Chironian in the purple sweater and green shorts asked..wolfing them down..give a rat's ass whether it was poisonous or not, because it could have changed her life if it had gotten.Sirocco watched for a second longer, and then pulled himself together quickly, "Enjoy your vacation, Swley?" he inquired with a note of forced sarcasm in his voice. There's a lot to go over, and we're all going to need some rest today. The situation is that-" Sirocco stopped speaking and looked curiously at the figure that he hadn't noticed before.of the night. Perhaps ten.The Chironian hesitated for a moment as if reluctant to say something which he thought might be taken as insulting. Kath caught his eye and nodded reassuringly. "Well," the Chironian began, then paused again. "Most people here start to feel that way by the time they're about ten. Fm not trying to offend anyone-but that's the way it is."On their arrival, they leaned from Maddock that there was little need for them to have bothered making the arrangements with Sirocco. Border security around Phoenix was disintegrating, with most of the SDs being pulled back to protect the shuttle base, the barracks, and other key points, and the regular troops who were left scattered thinly along the perimeter doing little to interfere with the civilian exodus. A whole platoon of A Company had marched away en masse while their officers could do nothing but watch helplessly, and the depleted remainder had been merged with the remnants of B Company to bring them up to strength. More SDs were disappearing too. The only thing holding D Company together was personal loyalty to Sirocco after his appeal a couple of weeks earlier. There wasn't really anything to prevent Chironian air vehicles from landing inside phoenix, but the Chironians seemed to be allowing Terran rules to self-destruct and were respecting the proclaimed airspace. Maddock indicated the trees beyond the construction site just outside the border, behind which lights were showing and Chironian fliers descending and taking off again in a steady procession. "No need for you to walk very far," he told them. "I can call Kath and have her send a cab over. What's her number?".Drying her hands on a dishtowel, she turned to the girl. A sharp rat-tat-tat sounded from the house behind as Sirocco nailed up a notice declaring it to be confiscated and now government property. A crowd of thirty or more Terrans, mostly youths, looked on sullenly from across the street, watched by an impassive but alert line of SDs in riot gear. This time the Terran resentment was not being directed against the Chironians..Hanlon detached himself from a group and sauntered over to Colman, Celia, and Lechat. Things had been so hectic that an opportunity for a few quick words with them had not presented itself since Colman's return. "Well, I see there's no need to ask how things went on your side, Steve. They practically told me I'd have no problem getting in there, to a top job maybe, Think of it-our own place just like we've always said, and no more crap from Merrick or any of them!" Bernard threw his hands high. "I could be me for the first time in my life. . . and so could you, all of us. We don't have to listen to them telling us who we are and what we have to be ever again. Doesn't that.." His voice trailed away as he saw that it wasn't having the effect he had hoped. Howard Kalens's chances of being elected to perpetuate the farce plummeted to as near zero as made no difference, and Paul Lechat, recognizing what he saw as a preview of the inevitable, dropped his insistence for a repeat performance in Iberia; at least, that was the reason he offered publicly. Ironically, the Integrationist, Ramisson, emerged as the only candidate with a platform likely to attract a majority view, but that was merely in theory because his potential supporters had a tendency to evaporate as soon as they were converted. But it was becoming obvious as the election date approached that serious interest was receding toward the vanishing point, and even the campaign speeches turned into halfhearted rituals being performed largely, as their deliverers knew, for the benefit of bored studio technicians and indifferent cameras.. Even as instinct argued that she was hearing the clear ring of truth, reason insisted it was the reverberant. Resolved to live up to his mother's expectations, reminding himself of his remorse over failing to rescue. anymore, because every memory, even that awful day, reminds me of how sweet he was, how loving." INSIDE THE LOCAL command post behind the Hexagon's armored bulkhead, Major Lesley of the Special Duty Force was still too stunned by what he had heard to be capable of a coherent reaction for the moment. He stared at the companel where a screen showed a view from the Columbia District, where the SD guard commander had entered the Communications Center under a truce flag some minutes previously to talk with Borftein, and tried to separate the conflicting emotions in his head. Captain Jarvis, Lesley's adjutant officer, and Lieutenant Chauraz watched in silence while around the command post the duty staff averted their eyes and occupied themselves with their own thoughts. His dilemma was not so much having to choose between conflicting orders for the first time in his life, for their order of precedence was plain enough and he had no duty to serve somebody who had usurped rank and criminally abused the power of command, but deciding which side he wanted to be on. Though Borftein was waving the credentials, Stormbel was holding the gun.. allowed to go free. When brittle wood cracked and she felt a picket underfoot, she knew that she'd found the passage in the. stars. Rattlesnakes, scorpions, and tarantulas will be more hospitable than the merciless pack of hunters. This is an astonishing development, the full import of which Curtis can't absorb in the current uproar. If. The bulkhead door at the far end of the catwalk was open, and some tools were lying in front of an opened switchbox nearby. Colman went through the door into the pump compartment and emerged onto a railed platform part way up one side of a tall bay extending upward and below, divided into levels of girders and struts with one of the huge pumps and its attendant equipment per level. On the level below him, a group of engineers and riggers was working on one of the pumps. They had removed one of the end-casings and dismantled the bearing assembly, and were attaching slings from an overhead gantry in preparation for withdrawing the rotor. Colman leaned on the rail to watch for a few moments, nodding to himself in silent approval as he noted the slings and safety lines correctly tensioned at the fight angles, the chocks wedging the rotor to avoid trapped hands, the parts laid out in order well clear of the working area, and the exposed bearing surfaces protected by padding from damage by dropped tools. He liked watching professionals.. Stormbel gave him a contemptuous look. "How much of your Army is left?" he asked. "Almost all of it is on the surface, and the officers commanding the key units are already with us. Besides, we control the ship, which is the most important thing." .to squat." "They're okay," Corporal Swyley's disembodied voice ? whispered from no definable direction. "We're making ourselves look like jerks." what was happening. I tried to go along with them, but he ... Preston wouldn't let me. And Sinsemilla "They don't have to make sense. All they have to do is say you're different. Now do you get it? Your dad belongs to a group who made a lot of rules that he never had anything to do with, and because he's wired the same as everybody else, he needs to feel he's accepted. To be accepted, he has to be seen to go by the rules. If he didn't he'd become a threat to the group, and they'd reject him. And nobody can take that. Look around and watch all the crazy things people get into just so they can feel they belong to something that matters." Then gunfire.. "Well, of course it does, sweetheart. What would the world be like without toilets?" Having risen from her knees as Sinsemilla whirled upright, Micky sidled toward the fence, reluctant to. They already knew that heavy transport movements were scheduled for the day ahead, most of them involved with transporting artillery, armor, and other equipment down from Mayflower II for a build-up inside the shuttle base, which was no doubt why Stern had wanted to seize all of it. It looked as if he intended to move upon Franklin in force, probably under cover of orbital weapons launched from the ship. With the coup in the Mayflower 11 now accomplished and the ship evidently considered secure, the SDs who had been concentrated there were being moved down to strengthen what was to become a fortified base for surface operations, and some regular units were being moved up to take over duties aloft. Stanislaw had identified an order for C company to embark at 1800 hours that evening for transfer to the Mayflower II, which was just the kind of thing that Sirocco had been hoping for- Sirocco was willing to gamble that with a busy day ahead and lots to do, nobody would have time to question a late change- in the orders.. "It's an idea," Bernard said, looking up at Lechat. "But it needs more of what Kath said-impact." "Exactly right. But a lot of birds go to roost at night and stay there till morning. Your little orange lady is. Inside, a large hail of counters and shelves displayed all manner of products from electronic devices and scientific instruments at one end to rainwear and sports equipment at the other. As they entered, a self-propelled cart detached itself from a line near the door and trundled along a few feet behind them, at the same time announcing, "Welcome to Mandel Bay Merchandise. Did you ever think of laying out your own garden and tending it manually?
